Dear Representatives Reggie-Jones Sawyer and Senator Kamlager,

We, the Voices Neighborhood Council, are writing to express our support for the state budget request of $___ submitted by ___ to support the implementation of the Exposition Park Master Plan and the redevelopment of the Park's southern parking lot into a community-serving greenspace with underground parking.

The creation of this park will add an additional 14 acres of park space to a dense neighborhood with very high rates of poverty and low levels of park access. According to the Los Angeles Countywide Comprehensive Park & Recreation Needs Assessment, the neighborhoods surrounding Exposition Park (including University Park, Exposition Park, and Vermont Square) have just 0.2 acres of park space for every 1,000 residents. This is nearly 17 times lower than the county average of 3.3 park acres per 1,000 residents. Greenspace is even more sparse in the southern portion of this area, which is part of the Voices Neighborhood Council and home to a greater portion of low-income people of color. Over 38% of the residents in the Voices Neighborhood Council area live below the poverty line, 75% are Latinx, 23% of residents are Black, and 25% of all residents are under the age of 14^[1].

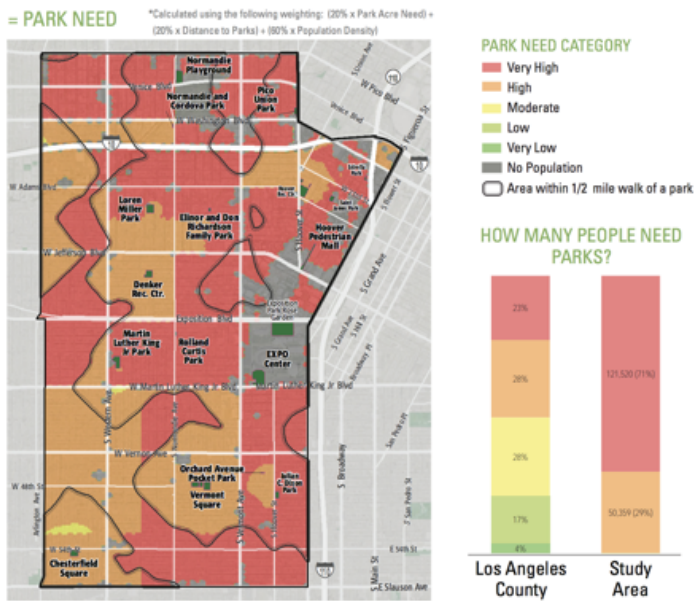

Safe, well-maintained parks and open space is so scarce in our neighborhood that during the height of the pandemic, residents used the existing parking lot at Exposition Park as a make-shift track and every day dozens of residents would jog around the parking lot in circles or bring their young children with their bicycles and scooters.

This park is not only necessary, it is urgent and long overdue. For decades Exposition Park has developed and oriented itself towards the USC campus while turning its back to the neighborhood. The northern entrance facing USC features lush grass, large trees, and the iconic rose garden, while the southern entrance is primarily a cement parking lot with a large iron fence. With the upcoming Olympics in 2028, Exposition Park has the opportunity to leverage an influx of global money and attention to directly benefit neighborhood residents by redeveloping the southern portion of the park into a space to play, exercise, convene, and enjoy LA's sunny weather.

Given the State's unprecedented budget surplus, we urge you to lead this effort and facilitate this historic investment that will further the State's goals of environmental justice, climate resilience, and equitable economic development. We also look forward to working collaboratively with Exposition Park staff and State leaders to design the new greenspace to include much-needed community amenities such as play facilities for children and youth, dog-friendly areas, and opportunities for exercise and recreation.

Sincerely,

Albert Farias
Chair

The Vermont Square neighborhood which includes the neighborhood south of Exposition Park (between Martin Luther King to the North and 54th Street to the South) is 39% Black, 57% Latinx and has a median household income of $29,904. Additionally, the neighborhood has among the highest percentages of children and youth in the entire country.

24% of the population is under the age of 18 the median household income is $42,616

20% of all residents do not have a vehicle

Hello Jaime, and Albert,

This letter is to express interest in becoming a board member for the Voices Neighborhood Council. I am interested in filling the position of Secretary.

I have lived in South Los Angeles for twenty two years, the last three and a half of which were in the Voices Community boundaries. As many of you can see from my participation in board meetings for the last two years I have an interest of what happens to community and would like to be involved.

Sincerely,

Jason Saunders
